Strategies

- From the King's Gate bonfire, walk out hugging the right wall as this will, most of the time, only aggro him and not his buddy the Elite Knight Phantom. Next you'll want to lure him into the small hallway with the ladder and the stone soldier statues.
- Once he's inside, run up and start hitting him into a nook or corner so he can't move too much or at all because doing this means he can't attack you. as he can only use his bow and only if your as certain distance from him, making this a one sided fight in your favor.

Notes

- Removed in Dark Souls II: Scholar of the First Sin.
