Notes

- Can use Estus to heal.
 - There's an easy way to kill him. Instead of walking into the tunnel to where he is, walk to the left where Havel was standing, and kill the nearby Forest Spirit. Ricard will come out from the entrance near where he's standing. Have a Greatbow ready, and start shooting him. You can either knock him into a hole to kill him, or you can just keep firing until he dies. It takes a few greatarrows, but it's safer than going into a melee fight with him.
