Cathedral Of Blue Map (Japanese)

After lowering the drawbridge to the Cathedral, there is a chest in front of the fog wall containing the Ring of Binding (Dark Souls II only) and five Human Effigies. The corpse next to it has an Old Radiant Lifegem.

The Old Dragonslayer boss is behind the fog wall. See his article for more details.

When victorious, move through the door to the balcony. Speak to Blue Sentinel Targray. Open the chests next to him to find a Heide Knight Iron Mask (Dark Souls II only), a Tower Shield and three Cracked Blue Eye Orbs.

Near the balcony is a passage to the right leading to the only bonfire in this area.

Notes

---

- At the bonfire in the cathedral, if you are in the Blue Sentinels covenant you can duel with fellow Sentinels or NPC phantoms by kneeling at the statues in the room. Doing so costs one Token of Fidelity.
