

Blue Sentinel Targray

Description

Sir Targray oversees the original chapter of the Blue Sentinels based in the Cathedral of Blue in Heide.

Although he sometimes comes across as condescending due to his unwavering faith in the righteousness of his actions, in reality Targray is selfless and stoic; determined to train himself to achieve a higher state of mind and help fellow Knights of Blue. Targray remained in Drangleic to continue supporting his comrades even after people began fleeing the ruined kingdom and he himself became Undead.

Location

Cathedral of Blue

Found on the balcony after the fight with the Old Dragonslayer, and before the Cathedral of Blue bonfire.

- First meeting without a Token of Fidelity

Transient being.

This is no place for one such as you.

Be gone. You are not needed.

- When talking again without a Token of Fidelity

Transient being, nothing has changed.

You would never make a Knight of the Blue, and I have nothing more to say.

Be gone. You are not needed.

- When talking with a Token of Fidelity / Original request to join covenant

Transient being.

You have obtained proof, you are worthy of joining our Order.

You may call yourself one of us, and are free to plant your roots in this garden of the gods.

Be proud. I, Targray, do proclaim, from this day, you are a Knight of the Blue.

Rejoice, and bask in your new honour.

- Answer "yes"

You are no longer a mere vagabond. You are now a guardian, a Knight of the Blue.

Proud knight, take this.

Wear this ring, and shine light upon stone.

Then, you will hear the voices of the blue apostles.

Listen for their cries of help, and repel the malicious invaders.

This is the proud work of the Knights of the Blue, the way they elevate themselves to a higher plane.

I'll provide what you need. You may visit me at any time.

- Answer "no"

Do my ears deceive me?

Who would refuse such magnificence?

Gods, have mercy...on this halfwit. He knows not what he speaks.

- Talking again when not a member of the covenant / Request to join covenant

You are a wandering transient.

Do you rescind your ways, and seek honour as an apostle of blue?

- Answer "yes"

You are no longer a mere vagabond. You are now a guardian, a Knight of the Blue.

Proud knight, take this.

Wear this ring, and shine light upon stone.

Then, you will hear the voices of the blue apostles.

Listen for their cries of help, and repel the malicious invaders.

This is the proud work of the Knights of the Blue, the way they elevate themselves to a higher plane.

I'll provide what you need. You may visit me at any time.

- Answer "no"

Ohh Gods...have mercy...

- Talking when one is a member of the Blue Sentinels covenant

Proud knight, you may come to me, Targray, for help.

- Using 'Talk' option

We Knights of the Blue must rely upon one another to achieve our greater goal.

Present your Token of Fidelity.

...to test your strength against other knights.

(or)

We Knights of the Blue must rely upon one another to achieve our greater goal.

Take your Token of Fidelity, and stand there.

...to test your strength against other knights.

- Using 'Talk' option

Proud knight, aim high in all things.

We knights must protect the apostles of blue.

Never forget this fact, and by your honour, never eschew your training.

- Using 'Talk' option

There are others in this forsaken place who have only a lust for blood.
They conspire to ambush blue apostles on the road.
Knight of the Blue, protect our apostles from these bloodthirsty brigands.
Take pride in your duty as a Blue Knight.
Work hard, and pursue a higher plane.

- When talking as a member of the Brotherhood of Blood covenant for the first time (?)

Ooh...Ooooh...Unthinkable...
Be gone...And be forever transient.

- When talking as a member of the Brotherhood of Blood covenant again (?)

Be gone...There is no mercy for your kind.

- When leaving, having used his services

Pursue your work, Knight of the Blue.

- When leaving, without having used his services

Do your work, and I will lend you strength.

- When walking off without closing the menu

Go, and be proud.

- Reach Rank 1 in the Blue Sentinels covenant

You've achieved much, and approached a higher plane.
But our path is long and arduous.
We must always seek further challenges.

- Reach Rank 2 in the Blue Sentinels covenant

Knight of the Blue, you have accomplished much.
You are closer still to a higher plane.
You will continue to lead the weak and misguided.
May you always stand proud.

- Reach Rank 3 in the Blue Sentinels covenant

We walk along an endless path.
Along the way, we see glimpses of a higher plane.
We challenge ourselves, until we breathe our last breath.

- When giving equipment to the player

Take these.
May you achieve great things.

- When attacked and aggroed

You are my greatest challenge.

- When killing the player

By my knight's honour...

- When re-encountered after aggroing

Welcome back, my greatest challenge.

- When attacked and health is under 50%

This is the ultimate challenge...

- When killed

Great Sentinel...lead me home...

- Unknown

Brave knight...Be proud.
