

Laddersmith Gilligan

Description

A merchant located in Earthen Peak. Will move to Majula after killing the boss Mytha, the Baneful Queen.

Location

Earthen Peak

Found near the Central Earthen Peak bonfire. Walk upstairs and pass though the door to the balcony with the Manikin. Destroy the wooden balustrade and go left.
He will offer you a ladder for 2,000 souls in order to get a treasure (Pharros' Lockstone and Twinkling Titanite).

Majula

Found sitting next to the Pit in Majula. You don't need to speak to him in Earthen Peak in order for him to move to Majula. He will simply travel here after you kill Mytha the Baneful Queen.
If this happens, you can still collect the above loot by dropping down (the falling height is quite short), along with a Homeward Bone or Aged Feather to safely return.

- Be aware that there's a poison butterfly above him in Earthen Peak in SOTFS. Under certain rare circumstances, it can kill him. Shoot the bug down as soon as you lay eyes on it.

- After buying the Long Ladder for 12,000 souls, speak to him again to receive the Melu Scimitar as a gift for your "big spend". This will also unlock the 'Garrulous Miser' achievement/trophy.
- If you kill Gilligan, his gravestone will not be where he was but rather behind Saulden, the Crestfallen Warrior.
- He can use lifegems in combat.
- Bug: You may be unable to pick up Gilligans items after killing him if you already bought his Ladder Miniature. You will receive a message stating "Inventory bag is full". To pick up the items, discard the Ladder Miniaturer that you purchased earlier.

- When first encountered

...Shush, you eejit, stay quiet!
...I'm on the run, don't give me away!
...You're a fugitive too, eh?
...Yes, why else would you be here...
...It's got death written all over it...

- When offering the ladder in Earthen Peak

...You want to climb down here?
...I can lend you a ladder...
...But em...ha...how much can you offer me?
...Why, you! I'm trying to help you, you know...
...Have you no gratitude? Downright rude, really!
...But I've...I've...I've got a soft heart so...
...I'll let you off, this once...

- Answer "yes"
...All right, it'll be just a moment...
...Ahhh...Go on ahead, I won't offer this deal twice... (after cutscene)
- Answer "no"
...Hell, of course it's not free!

- Talking to after declining services

...What? You don't have a choice, do you!
...Then, let's have it! Show me your finest...

- Revisiting after purchasing ladder in Eathern Peak

...Oh, what is it? What do you need now?

- Using talk option (Earthen Peak menu)

...Psst, have you heard?
...Well, apparently there's this monster lady, right...
...And the poison, well, does wonders for her body...
...You know, health and beauty, and that sort of stuff...
...And I thought only human women were so petty!

- Using talk option (Earthen Peak menu)

...That creature, she was human, once, you know...
...Hmm, In fact, she was wed to the Prince of that nearby castle...
...But her husband, hmm, he had feelings for another...
...The Princess was desperate, and sought eternal beauty...
...Hoping that it would restore the Prince's, ah, affection, ha you see what I mean...

- Using talk option (Earthen Peak menu)

...Before long, the Princess' ire transformed her into a monster...
...Now listen here. When do you think this all happened?
...Long ago, when this very land was called something else...
...We say Drangleic now, but...
...Countless kingdoms have risen and fallen on this very spot...
...And this won't be the last...oh no...

- Using talk option (Earthen Peak menu)

...That damned hag just can't let her old flame go...
...She's going to get us all burned...

- Using talk option (Earthen Peak menu)

...Gods almighty...
...I'm not going to die in this dump...

- Leaving after accepting further service (Earthen Peak)

...No mate, these deals, they won't last forever...

- Leaving without seeking further service (Earthen Peak)

...Fine, then, all the best...

- Leaving without closing menu (Earthen Peak)

...Oi! Downright rude, really...

- First encounter in Majula

Wait, you found your way out, too! Hah!
The name's Gilligan. Don't make me say it twice! Heh heh.
All right, what do you want?
I have everything you need! Heh heh heh...

- Revisiting in Majula

Ah! Back already? Ha.

(or)

Hey, what've you been up to!

(or)

Come to see auld Gilligan, have you? Hah! (after purchasing ladder)

(or)

All right, what'd you forget this time?

- Using talk option (Majula menu)

Ohhh, I should've listened to the warnings. This place is flippin' mental.

Huh? No, I wasn't born here. I'm from a wee bit... I'm from a wee bit out west, that's all.

I've seen some rough times. I think I'll settle down for a while.

- Using talk option (Majula menu)

You wouldn't believe the shenanigans that happen in my business.

I thought at least here in the middle of nowhere I could stay clear of, you know, my auld pals.

Oh, don't ask me what happened! Have you no discretion, me auld chum?

- Using talk option (Majula menu)

That gaping hole? Hell, search me.

It's where the people round here toss all their rubbish.

Corpses or you know what... Whatever they'd rather be rid of.

Oh, and, and those human statues. Who are they supposed to be?

Anybody, I suppose. Probably just some auld pagan custom.

What's it like at the bottom of the hole? Why in the hell would I know! Hah!

- Using talk option (Majula menu)

Oh, yes, somebody told me that the grave of a... of a saint lies below here.

Not built by the King, no no. It dates back to a time long before him.

The tomb connects to that hole.

And there's...there's...there's something about some...some Rat King down there.

Hell, if the old rat is as rich as they say, maybe I should go and pay him a visit!

- Using talk option (After long ladder purchase)

Here you are my friend, you can have these, eh! It's a little bonus, you know, for your big purchase.

Ah come on, don't look so glum! I'm trying to be nice here!

You're hopeless, I tell you...

- Requesting Majula ladder service

You want to go down that awful hole? You must have lost your marbles! Heh heh!

Fine, sure, fine, I'm happy to be of service.

You need a ladder, then, sure enough.

But you'll...you'll have to show some generosity.

- Accepting 500 souls ladder

You just don't get it, do you.

Fine, then, now it's my turn.

- Accepting 3500 souls ladder

A very reasonable offer!

Just you wait! Hm-hm!

- Accepting 12000 souls ladder

Well! Really! A very generous offer indeed, especially from you!

I get such a warm feeling inside when I get the chance to help others!

- Declining service

Well! Fine, it's not my business, anyway.

- After purchasing Majula ladder

Hey, this ladder's not for sale!

Th...the only things I sell are miniatures. I mean, if that tickles yer fancy, you can buy as many as you like!

- Re-requesting ladder service

What, you're heading down after all?

Well, that's fine, but if you want my help, you'll need to make me an offer.

- Leaving after accepting service (Majula)

Cheers for that! Hah hah!

- Leaving without accepting service (Majula)

What? Don't waste my time.

- Leaving without closing menu (Majula)

Oi! Where're you off to now!

- When attacking

Hey! That hurts!

Hey! That hurts!

You ungrateful little git! (aggroed)

You vicious little! I'll not go down that easy! (at 50% HP)

- When he kills the player

It's your own damn fault.

- Re-encounter after dying to him

Why, you...I'll tear you limb from limb!
