Old Whip

In-Game Description

A leather whip that has seen plenty of use.
It appears no different than an ordinary whip,
but is charmed by an ancient blessing that boosts damage inflicted on Hollows.

The blessing is likely the work of a cleric,
but whether the spell is good or evil is unclear.

Effect: attack boost against Hollows

Availability

Sometimes received for leaving a Petrified Something or a Smooth and Silky Stone in Sparkling Sisters Dyna and Tillo's nest.

Notes

- While extremely powerful for a whip class weapon, the durability is low and degrades very fast. As the whip hits on an area, every element it hit will count individually towards its durability, easily breaking the whip. (In 60 FPS on the PC version of the game, which causes all durability loss to happen twice as often as the 30 FPS console version during the active durability loss frames, the durability loss can be devastating.)
  - A Bracing Knuckle Ring can counter this side effect, and Repair Powder can be bought limitless after arriving at Drangleic Castle.
- Hitting with the tip of the whip does the most damage, and hitting with anything but the tip degrades durability faster.
